Reshaping Scholarly Communication

8-Part Webinar Series from:

ARL

ASSOCIATION OF RESEARCH LIBRARIES

Part 2b: Translating Government Policy into Campus Services

Thursday May 20, 11:00am-12:30pm, Rm 102, Murray Library

As the United States and other governments pass open access policies, there is a growing need to develop library services to support faculty in understanding and complying with these mandates. Program 2B will discuss what changes are happening in the public policy arena, with a focus on US policy and touching on international policy issues. Case studies of libraries working directly with their academic communities to educate and support compliance will share their experiences of what is effective.

Scheduled Speakers

- Heather Joseph, Executive Director, SPARC
- Molly Keener, Scholarly Communication Librarian, Z. Smith Reynolds Library, Wake Forest University
- Cathy Sarli, Scholarly Communications Specialist, Becker Medical Library, Washington University School of Medicine

All are welcome!

Brought to you by the Learning and Development Committee, University of Saskatchewan Library

library.usask.ca